Table of Contents

Unit Introduction: An Introduction to Sovereignty:
A Case Study of Taiwan ......................................... v
Rationale and Introduction to Lessons ........................ v
Unit Goals .................................................................. viii
Connections to Curriculum Standards ........................ viii
Materials .................................................................. ix
Time, Suggested Sequence of Activities ...................... x
Subjects, Suggested Grade Levels ............................. x
Explanation of the Cover—A Quick Exercise in Taiwan’s History .............................. x

Lesson One: The Concept of Sovereignty .......................... 1

Handouts
#1: Introduction to Taiwan ......................................... 4
#2: Map of Taiwan .................................................. 6

Transparencies
#1: Webster’s Dictionary Definition of Sovereignty .............. 7
#2: Professor Stephen Krasner’s Definitions of the Three Types of Sovereignty ........................................ 8
#3: Review of the Three Types of Sovereignty
for Discussion ....................................................... 9

Teacher Information
#1: Introduction to the Taiwan Unit ............................. 10
#2: Discussion Questions for Professor Stephen Krasner’s Lecture .. 11
#3: The Advantages of Having Sovereignty and the Disadvantages of Lacking Sovereignty ....................... 13

Lesson Two: Pre-History to World War II ....................... 15

Handouts
#1: Taiwan: Early History Through 1945 ..................... 18
#2: Compare and Contrast: Dutch, Chinese, and Japanese Rule .... 24
#3: Zheng Chenggong (Koxinga) ............................... 25
#4: Whose Hero? .................................................. 29
#5: Who Exercised Sovereignty over Taiwan? .................. 33

Teacher Information
#1: Introduction to Taiwan’s History Through 1945 ............ 35
#2: Taiwan: Early History Through 1945, Answer Key .......... 36
#3: Compare and Contrast: Dutch, Chinese, and Japanese Rule, Answer Key ..................................... 38
#4: Discussion Questions for
“Zheng Chenggong” and “Whose Hero?” ..................... 39
#5: Who Exercised Sovereignty over Taiwan?, Answer Key .... 40
Lesson Three: TAIWAN BETWEEN 1945 AND 1971 .......................... 43

Handouts
#1a: 1895–1945: Civil War on the Chinese Mainland ................. 48
#1b: 1945: The Return of Taiwan to Chinese Rule .................... 49
#1c: 1947: The February 28th Incident ................................. 51
#1d: 1949: A Flood of Refugees and the Declaration of Martial Law 52
#2: Domestic Sovereignty on Taiwan and the Mainland, 1895–1949 .................................................. 53
#3: Taiwan (1949–1971): The Battle for International Legal Sovereignty .................................................. 54
#4: Analyzing Propaganda Posters ...................................... 58
#5: Propaganda Poster Notes ............................................. 59

Activities
#1: Skit Instructions .................................................................. 60
#2: We Must Liberate Taiwan, Example .................................. 61
#3a: We Must Liberate Taiwan, #1 ......................................... 62
#3b: We Must Liberate Taiwan, #2 ......................................... 63
#3c: Loving Care from the Motherland ................................. 64
#3d: We Must Complete Our Mission of Unifying the Motherland 65
#3e: Rescue Our Taiwan Compatriots .................................... 66
#3f: Our Taiwan Compatriots Are My Flesh and Blood Brothers 67
#3g: Our Taiwan Compatriots Are Our Flesh and Blood Brothers 68
#3h: Sisterhood Across the Strait ......................................... 69
#4: Propaganda Poster Assignment ....................................... 70

Transparencies
#1: Definitions of Domestic Sovereignty .............................. 71
#2: Definition of Propaganda ................................................. 72

Teacher Information
#1: Domestic Sovereignty Discussion Guide ....................... 73
#2: Domestic Sovereignty Chart, Answer Key ..................... 74
#3: Taiwan (1949–1971): The Battle for International Legal Sovereignty, Answer Key .................................................. 75
#4: Guide to the Propaganda Posters ................................... 77

Lesson Four: TAIWAN’S MODERN HISTORY FROM 1971 TO 2000 .......... 81

Handouts
#1: Taiwan: 1971–2000 ......................................................... 85
#2a: ROC Political Development: 1987 in Review ................ 92
#2b: A New Vision for Taiwan’s Diplomacy .......................... 96
#2c: Taiwan Enthralled by President’s “Private” U.S. Trip ........ 98
#2d: United States Code: Title 22, Chapter 48—
     Taiwan Relations Act ..................................................... 101

Handouts
#2e: Taiwan’s New Way to Win Allies—Borrow Money .......... 104
#2f: Taipei: Chiang Says Vote in Assembly Was Illegal ............ 107
#2g: Excerpt from Taiwan Yearbook, 2003 ......................... 110

Activities
#1a: Presentation Group A ......................................... 112
#1b: Presentation Group B ......................................... 113
#1c: Presentation Group C ......................................... 114
#1d: Presentation Group D ......................................... 115
#1e: Presentation Group E ......................................... 116
#1f: Presentation Group F ......................................... 117
#1g: Presentation Group G ......................................... 118

Transparencies
#1: What Internal Forces Contributed to the Democratization of Taiwan? ................................................................. 119
#2: How Internal Forces Changed Political Policy in Taiwan ................................................................. 120
#3: Advantages of International Legal Sovereignty ......................... 121
#4: Taiwan’s Strategies for an Alternative System of International Relations ......................................................... 122

Teacher Information
#1: Taiwan: 1971–2000, Answer Key ................................... 123
#2: Notes for Debate ..................................................... 125

Lesson Five: PRESIDENT CHEN SHUI-BIAN AND CROSS-Strait RELATIONS 127

Handouts
#1: Taiwan: 2000–2004 ..................................................... 131
#2: Kiribati Flies Chinese, Taiwan Flags ................................ 135
#3a: Overview of Taiwan–U.S. Relations in the 1970s .............. 137
#3b: Overview of Taiwan–U.S. Relations in the 1980s .............. 139
#3c: Overview of Taiwan–U.S. Relations in the 1990s .............. 140
#3d: Overview of Taiwan–U.S. Relations, 2000–2004 .............. 141
#4: Notes to Claims to Taiwan and Homework Instructions ........ 143

Activities
#1a: Instructions for the Timeline, 1970s ................................ 144
#1b: Instructions for the Timeline, 1980s ................................ 145
#1c: Instructions for the Timeline, 1990s ................................ 146
#1d: Instructions for the Timeline, 2000–2004 ...................... 147

Transparencies
#1: Republic of China Flag (1928) ..................................... 148
#2: Sports Flag of “Chinese Taipei” (1984) ......................... 149
#3: “New Name, New Flag, New Anthem” Flag (1996) ........... 150

Teacher Information
#1: Taiwan: 2000–2004, Answer Key ................................... 151
#2: Notes to Claims to Taiwan, Answer Key ......................... 152
Appendices .................................................................153
a: References ............................................................155
b: Abbreviations .........................................................158
c: Pinyin Pronunciation Guide .......................................159