Friday, May 16, 2008

8:00-9:00  Continental Breakfast

9:00-9:45  Opening Session

Introduction of participants, workshop themes, and goals of the meeting.

9:45-10:00  Coffee Break

10:00-12:00  Ethical Consumption: Are consumers willing to pay for “sweat-free” and “fair-trade” products? And if so, how much more? A review of the evidence to date.

Participants:  Michael Hiscox (Harvard)
               Judy Goldstein (Stanford University)
               Yotam Margalit (Stanford University)
               Gary Kotzen (Costco)

Moderator:  Stephanie Barrientos (Manchester)

12:00-1:30:  Lunch

1:30-4:00  Roundtable Discussion on Returns/Costs of Compliance: Are Codes Good For Companies?

Participants:  Caitlin Morris (Nike)
               Ed Potter (Coca Cola)
               Marcela Manubens (Philips van Heusen)
               Judith Glazer (Hewlett Packard)
               Tim Mohin (Apple)
               Scott Nova (Workers Rights Consortium)
               Jorge Perez-Lopez (FLA)

Moderator:  Richard Locke (MIT)

3:45-4:00  Coffee Break
4:00-6:00: Innovations in National Regulations: What effective strategies are available to national labor ministries, with globalized production?

Participants
- David Weil (Boston University)
- Roberto Pires (MIT)
- Akshay Mangla (MIT)
- Dana Brown (Oxford)
- Júnia Maria de Almeida Barreto (Director of Department of Occupational Health and Safety Ministry of Labor, Brazil)

Moderator: Khalid Nadvi (University of Manchester)

7:00 Drinks and Dinner
Saturday, May 17, 2008

9:00-10:00  Continental Breakfast

10:00-12:00:  Unions and Freedom of Association: How important are worker rights, and how can they be protected?

Participants:  Thomas Kochan (MIT)
              Linda Yanz (Maquila Solidarity Network)
              Gay Seidman (University of Wisconsin)
              Neal Kearney (IFTCWU)
              Mark Levinson (UNITE-HERE)

Moderator:  Dara O'Rourke (Berkeley)

12:00-1:00  Lunch Break

1:00-3:00  Generalizing Labor Standards: Trade Rules and Benchmarking

Participants:  Michael Piore (MIT)
              Chuck Sabel (Columbia)
              Sanjay Reddy (Barnard College)
              Anne Posthuma (ILO)
              Monica Oberkofler (Gap Inc.)

Moderator:  Joshua Cohen (Stanford)

3:00-3:15  Coffee Break

3:15-4:30  Discussion of next steps: What are the large questions? And how we can start to answer them?

Moderated by Locke and Cohen, with the aim of getting agreement on a short list of 3-5 important questions that can guide the next steps of the project.

6:00  Buffet Dinner