

PROGRAM ON HUMAN RIGHTS

HUMAN RIGHTS OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES IN LATIN AMERICA

MAY 8, 2012

PROGRAM

WELCOME ADDRESS

9:00 – 9:15 AM

Rodolfo Dirzo, Director Center for Latin American Studies, Stanford University

OPENING ADDRESS

9:15 – 10:15 AM

Introduction: Larry Diamond, Director Center on Democracy, Development and the Rule of Law, Stanford University

Alejandro Toledo, President of Peru (2001 to 2006)

Panel Session 1 Discussant: Logan Hennessy

10:15 – 10:30 AM The Indirect Effects of War: Understanding Trends in Indigenous Child Health during the Guatemalan Civil War - Kelly L. Staves, Claire E. Watt, and Paul Wise

10:30 – 10:45AM Ecosystematic Innovation for Indigenous People in Latin America
Paul Kim, Karla Alfaro, and Leigh Anne Gilbert

10:45 – 11:00AM Moral Reasoning and Communicable Inequalities in Epidemiology and Human Rights
Clara Mantini-Briggs

11:00-11:30AM – Q&A

Panel Session 2 Discussant: Sergio Puig

11:35 – 11:50AM Shootings and Shamans: Local Civilian Authority Structures and Civil War Violence in Colombia – Oliver Kaplan

11:50 – 12:05AM To Find the Colors of the World Inside Ourselves: The Spectacular Zapatista's Deconstruction Spectacle & Reenchantment of Formal Rational Mind
Shara Esbenshade

12:05 – 12:30 AM Q&A

12:30 - Lunch

Keynote Talk

1:00 – 2:00PM

Eliane Karp-Toledo, Anthropologist, Economist and former First Lady of Peru (2001 -2006)

Panel Session 3 Discussant: Marília Limbrandi-Rocha

2:05 – 2:20PM Indigenous Knowledge and the Rule of Law: Reflections from Brazil – Paul Little

2:20 – 2:35PM A Lost Continent: Writing without an alphabet – Enrique Chagoya

2:35 – 2:50PM Indigenous Policy Review in Brazil: Ideologies, rights and perspectives – Rodrigo Martins dos Santos and Melissa Volpato Curi

2:50 – 3:20PM Q&A

Panel Session 4 Discussant: Helen Stacy

3:25 – 3:40PM Indigenous Peoples and Climate Change: False promises, false solutions – Alberto Saldamando

3:40 – 3:55PM What Does it Mean to Survive Violence in Colombia? - Tania Lizarazo

3:55 – 4:10PM Human rights of indigenous peoples from a historical perspective: the 1796 slaughter of 75 indigenous people in Paraguay (Viceroyalty of Río de la Plata), its causes and consequences – Benita Herrerros

4:10 – 4:25PM Gender in Times of Global Governance: Money and Power, Violence and Sex in Peru – Miriam Abu Sharkh

4:25 – 4:45PM Q&A

Panel Session 5 Discussant: Rachel Rosenberg

4:45 – 5:00PM Moving Toward Energy Independence: Environmental and Social Impacts of the Diquís Hydroelectric Project – Ellen Moore

5:00 – 5:15PM Quechua Oqrakashqa [lost – perdida]: The effects of mining consortia and globalization on local Quechua communities in the Peruvian Andes – Karen Sue Rolph and Marco Obregon Lazaro

5:15 – 5:30PM One Step Forward, Two Steps Back? The Inter-American System and Indigenous Property Rights – Alexia Romero and James Cavallaro

5:30 – 6:00PM Q&A

CLOSING REMARKS

6:00PM

Students for a Sustainable Stanford