MEASURING GOVERNANCE CROSS-NATIONALLY

Stanford University
Koret-Taube Conference Center
Center on Democracy, Development, and the Rule of Law and The Stanford Center on Global Poverty and Development
May 30-31, 2019

THURSDAY, MAY 30

8:30am  Breakfast

9:30-10:00am  Introductory Remarks
Francis Fukuyama

10:00-10:45am  Session I: Governance Surveys in Brazil
Alexandre Gomide
Pedro Costa Cavalcante
Katherine Bersch

10:45-11:00am  Coffee Break

11:00-11:45am  Session II: Governance Surveys in China and Ukraine
Margaret Boittin
Gregory Distelhorst
Artem Shaipov
Dmytro Iarovyi
Violeta Moskalu
Natalia Forrat

11:45am-12:15pm  Session III: Making Civil Services Work: Lessons from a Ten Country Survey
Christian Schuster
12:15-12:30pm  Session IV: The Bureaucracy Lab: Approach and Findings
Daniel Rogger

12:30-1:30pm  Lunch

1:30-3:30pm  Panel I: Towards Building a Cross-National Survey Pt. I
Chairs: Dan Rogger and Dinsha Mistree
Participants will split into country and consortium teams to assess lessons learned from their experience for future surveys and present them to the wider group at the end of the session.

3:30-3:45pm  Coffee Break

3:45-5:30pm  Panel I: Towards Building a Cross-National Survey Pt. II

6:30-8:00pm  Optional Dinner
Café Pro Bono
2437 Birch Street
Palo Alto, CA 94306

---

FRIDAY, MAY 31

8:30am  Breakfast

9:00-10:30am  Panel II: Embedding a Common Survey Tool in Upcoming and Future Surveys
Chairs: Katherine Bersch
Christian Schuster

10:30-10:45am  Coffee Break

10:45-12:00pm  Panel III: Where Do We Go Next?
Chair: Francis Fukuyama
Participants will split into country and consortium teams to discuss how they might approach future surveys.

12:00-1:00pm  Quick Lunch