The Taiwan Democracy Project at Stanford's Center on Democracy, Development and the Rule of Law (CDDRL) proudly presents a special panel session featuring the President of the Republic of China (Taiwan), Ma Ying-jeou. President Ma will speak via live video feed to commemorate the 70th anniversary of the end of World War II and the long history of the U.S.-R.O.C. relationship. Following his prepared remarks, the president will engage in a question-and-answer session with the audience and a distinguished panel of leading Stanford faculty and fellows, chaired and moderated by the former Secretary of Defense of the United States, William J. Perry. This event is co-sponsored by the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office - San Francisco and the Office of the President of the Republic of China Taiwan. RSVP REQUIRED - please visit: cddrl.fsi.stanford.edu/events.
